

FLOATS, FIRE, FOOTBALL SPARK 1965 HOMECOMING

"You'd never believe we're twins, would you?" Junior Attendant Patty Engel and Sophomore Attendant Judy Markle.

School didn't really settle down until October 15th. Committee goers were go-going, and football players were priming muscles and plays for that event of events—Homecoming.

The banquet and bonfire both sparked the keg on October 14th. At the Fourth Annual Booster Banquet speaker Joe Hutton offered his remembrances as a Hamline coach, and a group of folk-singers, The Waverlies, entertained an enthusiastic audience. Later that evening the bonfire began sizzling and drawing a crowd. A few lively ones began chanting around the fire, while others stared in awe or boredom or both.

On Friday afternoon Jean Hutchinson was crowned Homecoming Queen. Senior Attendants were Lee Coats, Sue Davis, Jane Farnham, Marcia Lindberg, and Susan Thornton. The parade began the evening events, offering clowns, girls, and floats, including GAA's prizewinner "Clip the Eagles' Wings."

At the game the team roared toward victory, but were defeated by Kennedy by a field goal in the last seconds of that tense game. Homecoming festivities are always concluded with a dance. This year's, entitled "Evening in Paris," was absolutely crepes suzettes!

"Shucks, I thought we were going to get to hold up a train." Tim Fortin and Sarah Dietrich took part in the Coronation Ceremony.
