

WHS Drama Festival

On February 28th, before the entire student body, Wayzata's first Drama Festival was presented consisting of three one-act plays. The first, "The Dear Departed," a comedy directed by Mr. Danner and student Ruth Schering, tells of two sisters battling for belongings of a thought-to-be-dead father who turns up alive in the end. The second, "The Running Tide," a tragedy directed by Mr. Fraser and student Debbie Archer, tells of a lighthouse keeper and her insane sister who is discovered to be the cause of two shipwrecks by having put out the light in the lighthouse. The third play, "Flannery's Ocean," also a comedy, directed by Mr. Anderson and student Wendy Raun, tells of an old man who thinks he owns the ocean, and in the end gives up the rights to it to an old woman who is soon to die.

CASTS

"The Dear Departed"

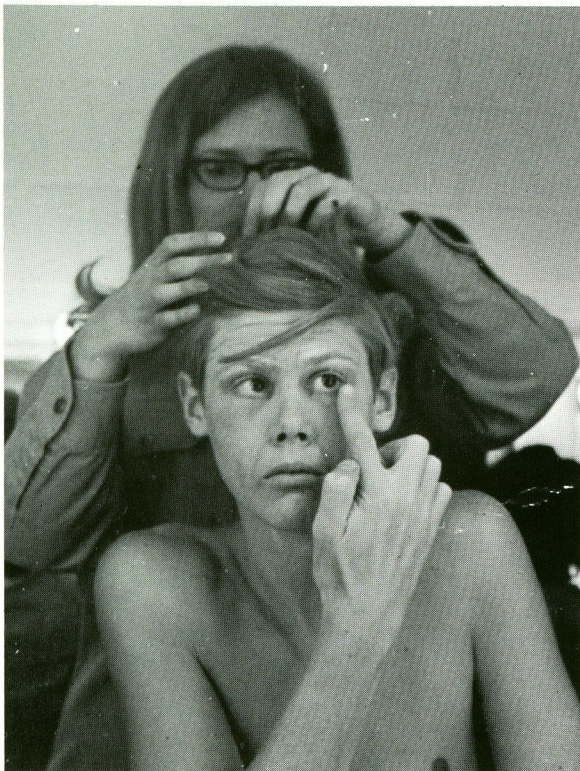

Mrs. Slater: Sue Carlson
Victoria Slater: Laurel Welch
Henry Slater: Tim Hawthorne
Mrs. Jordan: Sue Wells
Mr. Jordan: Luke Stemmer
Able Merriweather: Rolf Yngve

"The Running Tide"

Rachel Parks: Julie Laven
Monica Parks: Libby Falls
Amos: Steve Betker
John Agate: Paul Deopke

"Flannery's Ocean"

Mr. Flannery: Patrick Bauer
Maug: CeCe Hanson
Mrs. Clappington: LeAnn Schaezel
Mr. Morrison: Jim Wicklatz
Mrs. Morrison: Chris Eide
Mrs. Pringle: Kathy Rosen
Two Children: Sandy Fraser
 Mike Fraser

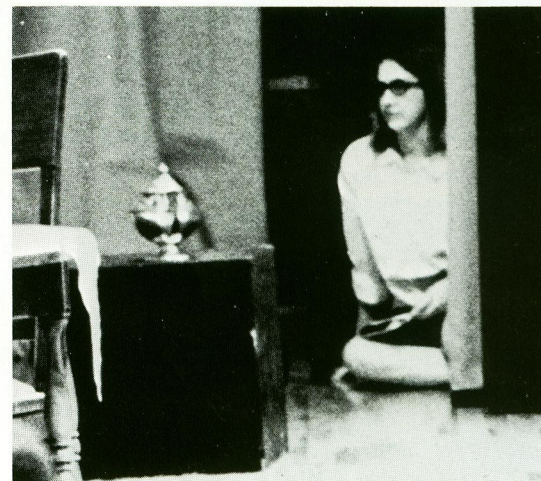

"Hey, you smeared my mascara." R. Yngve

Rolf, Sue, and Tim in an evening rehearsal.

Tim Hawthorne does the grind

"Psst! That's your cue." Ruth Schering